Thanks to John Ford for speaking to his friends in Sheldrake for letting us use their dock as a loading / unloading point for people! Please note, their doc is not too boat friendly so it should only be used for logistics. The owners are Rob and "Q" Cassetti whom will hopefully stop by! There is a gate on their driveway which says "The Lucky Stone" and the house is across the street from the dock. Their address is:

7386 Wyers Point Road
Ovid, New York

We'll raft up and have lunch together after the finish. Please bring lunch for you boat, but if you want to bring a snack or drink to pass, please do!

We won't raft up at the winery, as tour boats use the only slip available and the water is shallow. Most likely (for a north wind) we will raft up / anchor near Sheldrake Winery beach, which is the southern start on the handy dandy map provided by Charles (thanks!). In case of a southerly breeze we can raft / anchor on the north side of the point.

Dock and beach are near the stars:

Please let me know of any last minute boats / crew! Thanks!
