Third Race Day of the Spring Series, Sunday, May 22

It was an overcast day, with temperatures in the 50s, an occasional sprinkle, and a stiff northerly breeze of 14-18 knots with gust to 25 knots.

Due to the gusty conditions, we had the usual number of round-ups and broaches, with FANTASY dropping her chute in the water and sailing right over it. The gusty conditions also played a role in a major accident immediately after the start when WHARF RAT t-boned MEHITABEL and put a fist-size hole in her hull, dead center amidships.

The course that Fleet Captain Feavearyear picked for both races led us first north to Ladoga, then south to the East Shore mark, then southwest to the new West Shore mark, and from there for a short sprint back up north to the Yacht Club.

Seven boats showed up at the starting line, one in A-Fleet and six in B-Fleet. The A-Fleet boat was the extremely quick catamaran of new CLCF member Len Dolhert (PHRF 60).

The first race was won by Dave Feavearyear and crew with their J-24, SNITCH. The second race was won by Wade leftwich and crew with their Sonar 23, AUJOURD'HUI.
