Newsletter of the Cayuga Lake Cruising Fleet

Fourth Race Day of the Fall Series, Sunday, September 28

Since it was raining all morning, it was not surprising that the turn-out for Fall Series Races 7 & 8 was only four boats: Richard Stephens' Corsair 28 TREVELYAN, Clare Fewtrell's J-24, MEHITABEL, Eberhard Alsen's Tanzer 25 FANTASY, and Tim Bonniwell's Catalina 30, INVICTUS. But the rain ended during the first race.

For that first race, the fleet captain sent us to Crowbar, then to the Yacht Club, back up to Maplewood, and from there to the finish line. The wind ranged from 12 to 16 knots with gusts to 24. For the second race we went to Maplewood, had a long spinnaker run to the Pile Cluster, and then beat back to the Yacht Club. By now the wind had settled down to 10 knots, but the lake was still quite choppy.

The finishing order for the two races was identical with TREVELYAN in first, MEHITABEL in second, FANTASY in third, and INVICTUS in fourth place.

Frostbite Regatta, October 5

Because only three skippers of keelboats had signed up, the powers that be decided not to have a PHRF class in this year's Frostbite. So the event will be a pure Lightning affair.

Last Race Day of the Fall Series, October 12

Following the ninth race of the fall series, there will be an end-of-the-series party (formerly known as a "Keg & Barbie") with a cookout and free beverages provided by the Cruising Fleet (N.B.: This is not the end of the season yet. The final JBY race is on October 19).

The skippers' meeting for last fall series race will be at 12:45 at the South Pavilion of the Yacht Club. The start will be at 1:30.

Greetings!
