Third Race Day of the Spring Series, Sunday, May 24

Today, the weather gods were smiling on us and gave us a sunny day with temperatures in the 70s and NW winds of 6-10 knots.

In addition to the usual suspects, the C&C 30, LORELEI, joined the fray today. This brought the number of starters up to six.

For the first race, Fleet Captain Stephens sent us to the northern Maplewood mark; from there back south to the West Shore mark, just south of the Yacht Club; then back up north to Maplewood; and from there to a downwind finish at the club.

In that race, Tim Bonniwell's Catalina 30, INVICTUS, pulled into an early lead and never gave it up, finishing ahead of the second place boat, David Feavearyear's J24, SNITCH by 10 seconds real time and over 2 minutes corrected time.

For the second race, we were sent to Ladoga, back to the West Shore mark. and then to the Yacht Club for an upwind finish. The new Ladoga mark is a State of New York shallow water mark that looks exactly like one of our racing marks, except that it has the letters KA on it. The depth at the mark is 10 feet. The depth at the nearby smaller finger-shaped marks is between 6 and 7 feet. The coordinates for that new Ladoga mark are N 42°31.977 W 076°32.433.

At the Ladoga mark, Eberhard Alsen's Tanzer 25, FANTASY, and Dave Feavearyear's J24, SNITCH, rounded side by side and then sailed stem to stern all the way to the Maplewood mark. At that point, FANTASY peeled off to the middle of the lake where there was more wind. Fantasy rounded the West Shore mark ahead of SNITCH and held on to her lead across the finish line.

After the races, we fired up three grills and had a great cookout and party with beer supplied by the Fleet Captain.

Spring Series Standings after five Races

Bonniwell's INVICTUS is first, Feavearyear's SNITCH is second, Alsen's FANTASY is third.

Fourth Race Day of the Spring Series, Sunday, May 31

As usual, the skippers' meeting is at 12:45 at the South Pavilion of the Yacht Club, and we hope to sail two races. The start for the first race is at 1:30.

See you at the South Pavilion!
