Last Race Day of the Fall Series, Sunday, October 18

This was not your average race day as far as the weather was concerned. The sky was overcast. The temperatures were in the low 40s but the windchills were in the 30s. The wind was as fickle as usual. Wind directions ranged from NW to SW, and wind speeds ranged from 3 to 10 knots. And on the second leg of the race, we got hit by a snow squall that lasted almost 10 minutes with gusts over 28 knots. It was so bad that the crew of MEHITABEL abandoned the race so as not to risk damage to Clare Fewtrell's boat.

The five skippers that showed up for this year's last hurrah were Tim Bonniwell with his Catalina 30, INVICTUS; Richard Stephens with his Corsair 28, TREVELYAN; Eberhard Alsen with his Tanzer 25, FANTASY; David Feavearyear and his J-24s SNITCH; and Dan Apfel skippering Clare Fewtrell's J-24 MEHITABEL.

Rather than sailing two races to make up for an earlier missed race, we decided to sail one long one. The course was Far Maplewood, Sycamore, East Shore, Far Maplewood, West Shore, Near Maplewood and from there back to the Yacht Club.

TREVELYAN crossed the finish line first and this time also won the race on corrected time. Going into this last race TREVELYAN and MEHITABEL were tied for second place in the fall series. TREVELYAN prevailed in today's race. SNITCH came in second and thereby tied a ribbon on the fall series trophy which she had already won with one race to go.

Detailed race results and the Final Fall Series Standings are on the next page.

Marks-Out Work Parties and Awards Dinner

As soon as the dates for these events have been firmed up, you'll be informed.

Happy sailing to those of you who still have their boats in the water!
