Final Spring Series Races & BBQ

Race report by Keith Rice

Five boats raced in the last day of the spring series - Ayla's Ride, Little Wing, Trevelyan, Snitch, and Jenny Too. We had warm air (but cold water!) and a gusty south breeze that built a bit for the second race.

The first course set was Sycamore, Far Maplewood, West Shore. Snitch wasn't up to her usual excellent traffic management on the first beat and lost some ground to Ayla's Ride. Little Wing's crew got their asymmetric working nicely and the spinnaker boats had a fast ride down the lake.

The second race was the modified olympic triangle of Sycamore, East Shore, Far Maplewood, West Shore with a downwind finish. Several boats missed the 5 minute warning on the radio - fortunately they were near the start line and were able to quickly get moving! The leg to East Shore started as a tight reach before opening out to a broad reach towards the end; several boats waited until halfway through the leg to set their spinnakers. Only Trevelyan carried her spinnaker on the next leg to Far Maplewood but the angle proved tight even for her and a crew error during the douse found her several lengths downwind of the mark before turning back upwind.

The forecast rain continued to hold off for the end of series BBQ with beer and burgers supplemented by pastas, salads and desserts (and by dark and stormies, once Tim finished putting Ayla's Ride away).
