Newsletter of the Cayuga Lake Cruising Fleet

Fall Series 7&8

Six boats raced this past week: Richard Stephen's Corsair 28 Trevelyan, Clare Fewtrell's J-24 Mehitabel, Eberhard Alsen's Tanzer 25 Fantasy, David Feaveayear's J-24 Snitch and Tim Bonniwell's J-70 Ayla's Ride and Bill Russell's Catalina 32 Little Wing. The first course was Near Maplewood, West Shore, Far Maplewood with a north wind of about 5kts, slowly dropping as the race went on. Little Wing was finished in place and decided to start on beers instead of the second race. The second race was Near Maplewood, A mark, Near Maplewood with a steadier 5kts.

White Sails Race

From the Fleet Captain's desk...

Saturday we spied Crowbar mark floating down by IYC and then Sunday Eberhard reported seeing it off of Myers Point so after Sunday's races Susan, Tim, Lauren and I set off in Ruffin to recover it. It appears that it got free with all of its ground tackle. It appears this way because good grief was it ever difficult pulling in the top 10' of chain. Regardless, we went and dropped it close to where it belongs as we were not equipped to haul it up (with all of that weight). We did leave Ruffin a little bit of a mess (sorry Joe! We will clean it up - at the latest after we pull marks!).

Next Sunday (10/8) is the last day of the Fall Series however... We're going to hold off on having a BBQ until the following Sunday - 10/15 - when we will hold our Frostbite White-Sail Regatta and super fun bonanza thing! I encourage all boats to come out - what the heck?? We'll find some good and challenging things that everyone can compete in! You have nearly 2 weeks to prepare for this so now is the time to begin! I request that each boat have at least one cell phone aboard that is configured for and running the raceQs app. You'll have to download it and create an account but then we'll all be able to watch everyone in the same race. "How geeky!" says Tim. There might be a tiny bit of that, but I will be looking for your GPS tracks as part of scoring in the regatta and this will certainly do that!

See you on the water!
