Fall races 1 & 2

There were boats. There were many boats. There were so many boats that we had two starts. There were lots of boats. The boats sailed. There was weather. The weather was propitious for sailing. The sailing was great. The sailing was fast. Sails tore. Many sails tore. That is unfortunate. Mojito tore two sails. Galaxy tore one sail.

Boats raced. Boats finished races. Boats did not send in their times. Many boats did not send in their times. The online form had an incorrect title. The online form worked with the incorrect title. Using the online form is easy. Consider using the online form. Use the online form to turn in your times. We have stickers that you can scan to enter your times. You can text your times to Richard. You can email your times to Richard. If you do not turn in your times you will not like your scores. Scores become final. Final scores with no times are not propitious.

Fill out finish times here:

There is a QR code you can scan to get to the form. We have stickers with the QR code. We can give you a sticker. It's a cute code. It has sailboats. You scan it.

Fall Results

Online scoring is official. If you don't correct things online scoring is final. Fall results are online. Fall results are here:

There are only five boats who turned in scores. Eight or nine or ten boats raced. Three or four or five boats did not turn in times. Which boats? Those who did not turn in times.

Ladoga Mark

Ladoga mark was missing. Oh no! Where did it go? It went to Myers Park. It was recovered. It is back at Myers Park. Myers Park is also where Ladoga is. But Ladoga was not where Ladoga was. Ladoga was at Myers Park. But it is back.

Upcoming

Sunday 6 September: Fall 3&4

Saturday 12 September: Day 50 Mile race starting at 8AM. If you need crew or a boat say so now.

There is blank space at the end of the page. Draw a sailboat in the space. Email me the sailboat. I will appreciate the sailboat. I appreciate sailboats.
